THE BROWNS' PARTY

SIMPLE PAST

Mr. and Mrs. Brown invited all their friends and neighbors to a party last night.

They stayed home all day yesterday and prepared for the party.

In the morning the Browns worked outside.

Their daughter, Claudia, cleaned the yard.

Their son, Dan, painted the fence.

Mrs. Brown planted flowers in the garden.

Mr. Brown fixed their broken front steps.

In the afternoon the Browns worked inside the house.

Claudia washed the floors and vacuumed the living room carpet.

Dan dusted the furniture and cleaned the basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown stayed in the kitchen all afternoon.

He cooked spaghetti for dinner, and she baked apple pies for dessert.

DESERT - DESSERT

The Browns finished their work at six o'clock.

Their house looked beautiful inside and out.

The Browns' guests arrived at about 7:30.

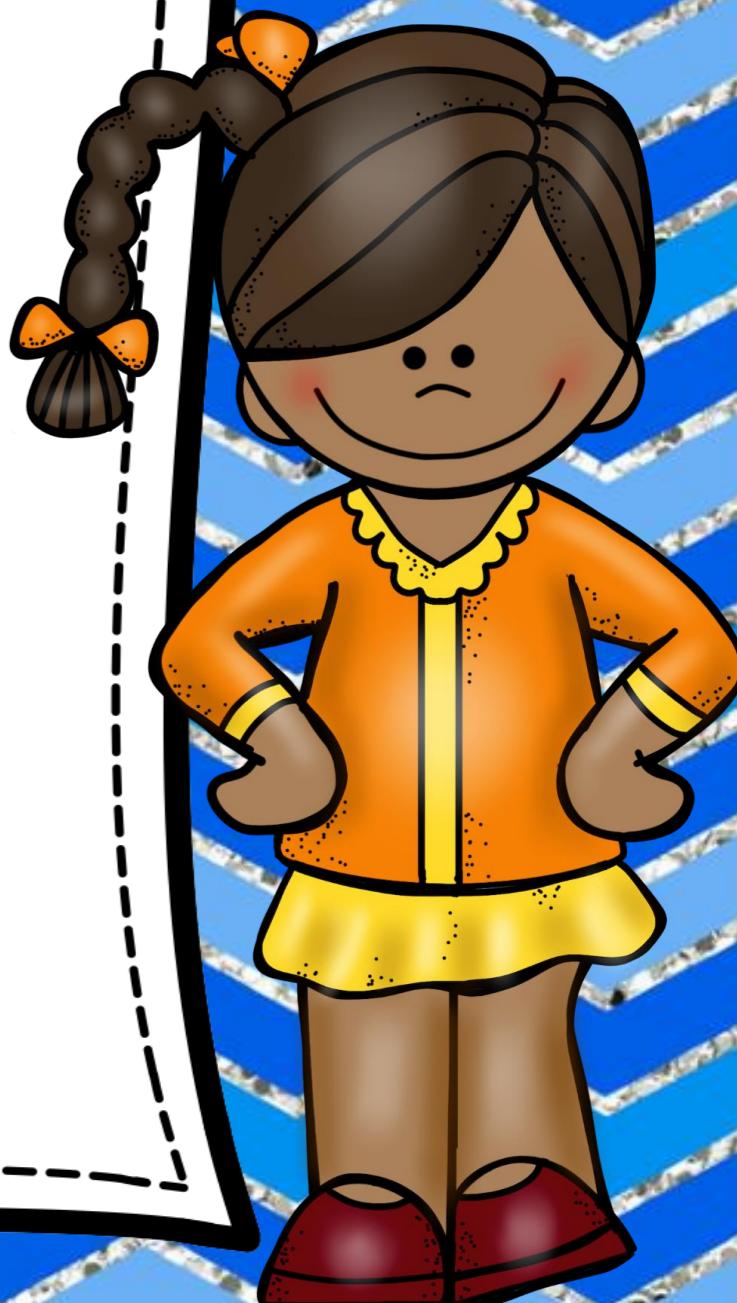

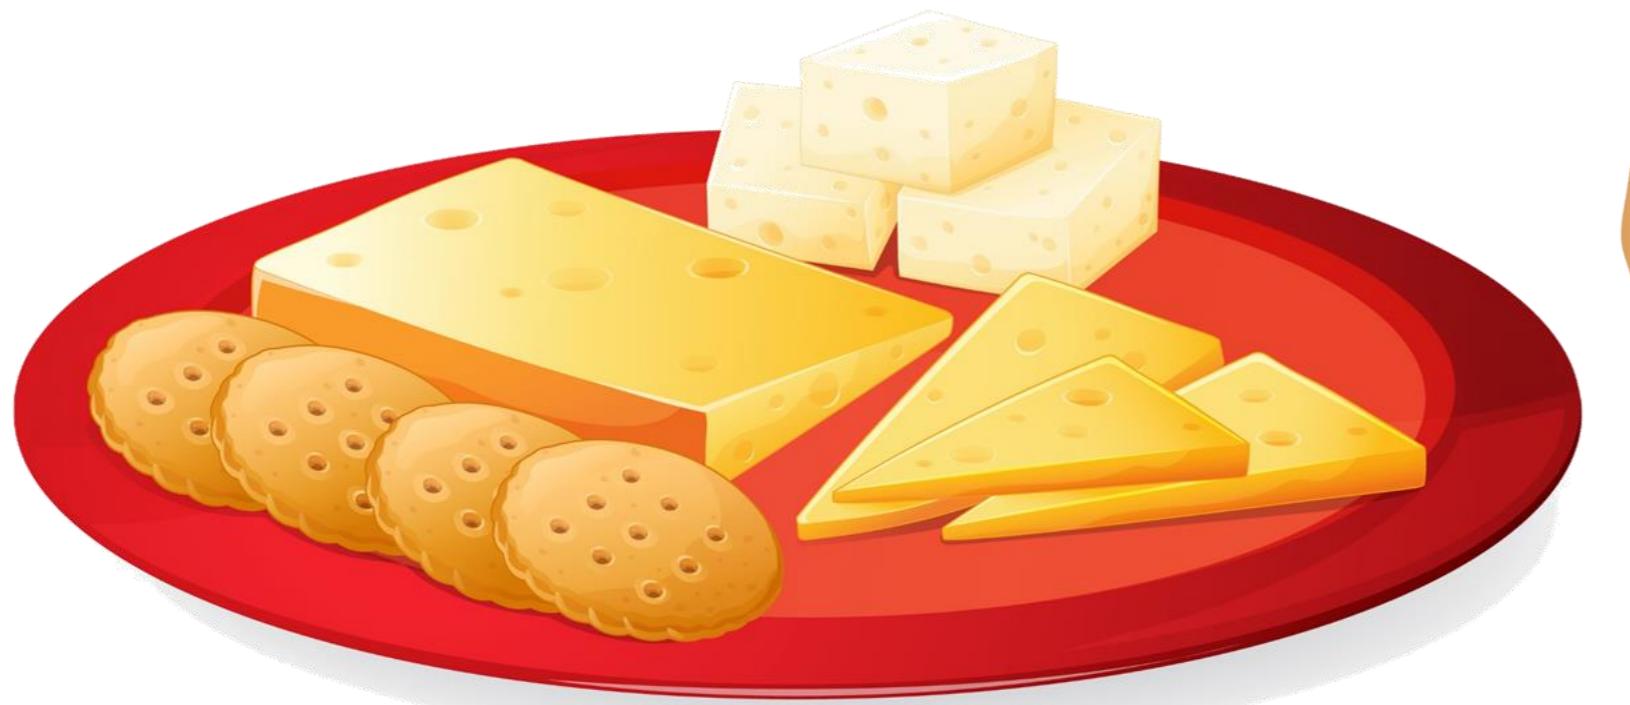

After they arrived, they all sat in the living room.

They ate cheese and crackers, drank lemonade, and talked.

CRACKERS - COOKIES

Some people talked about their children.

CHILD - CHILDREN

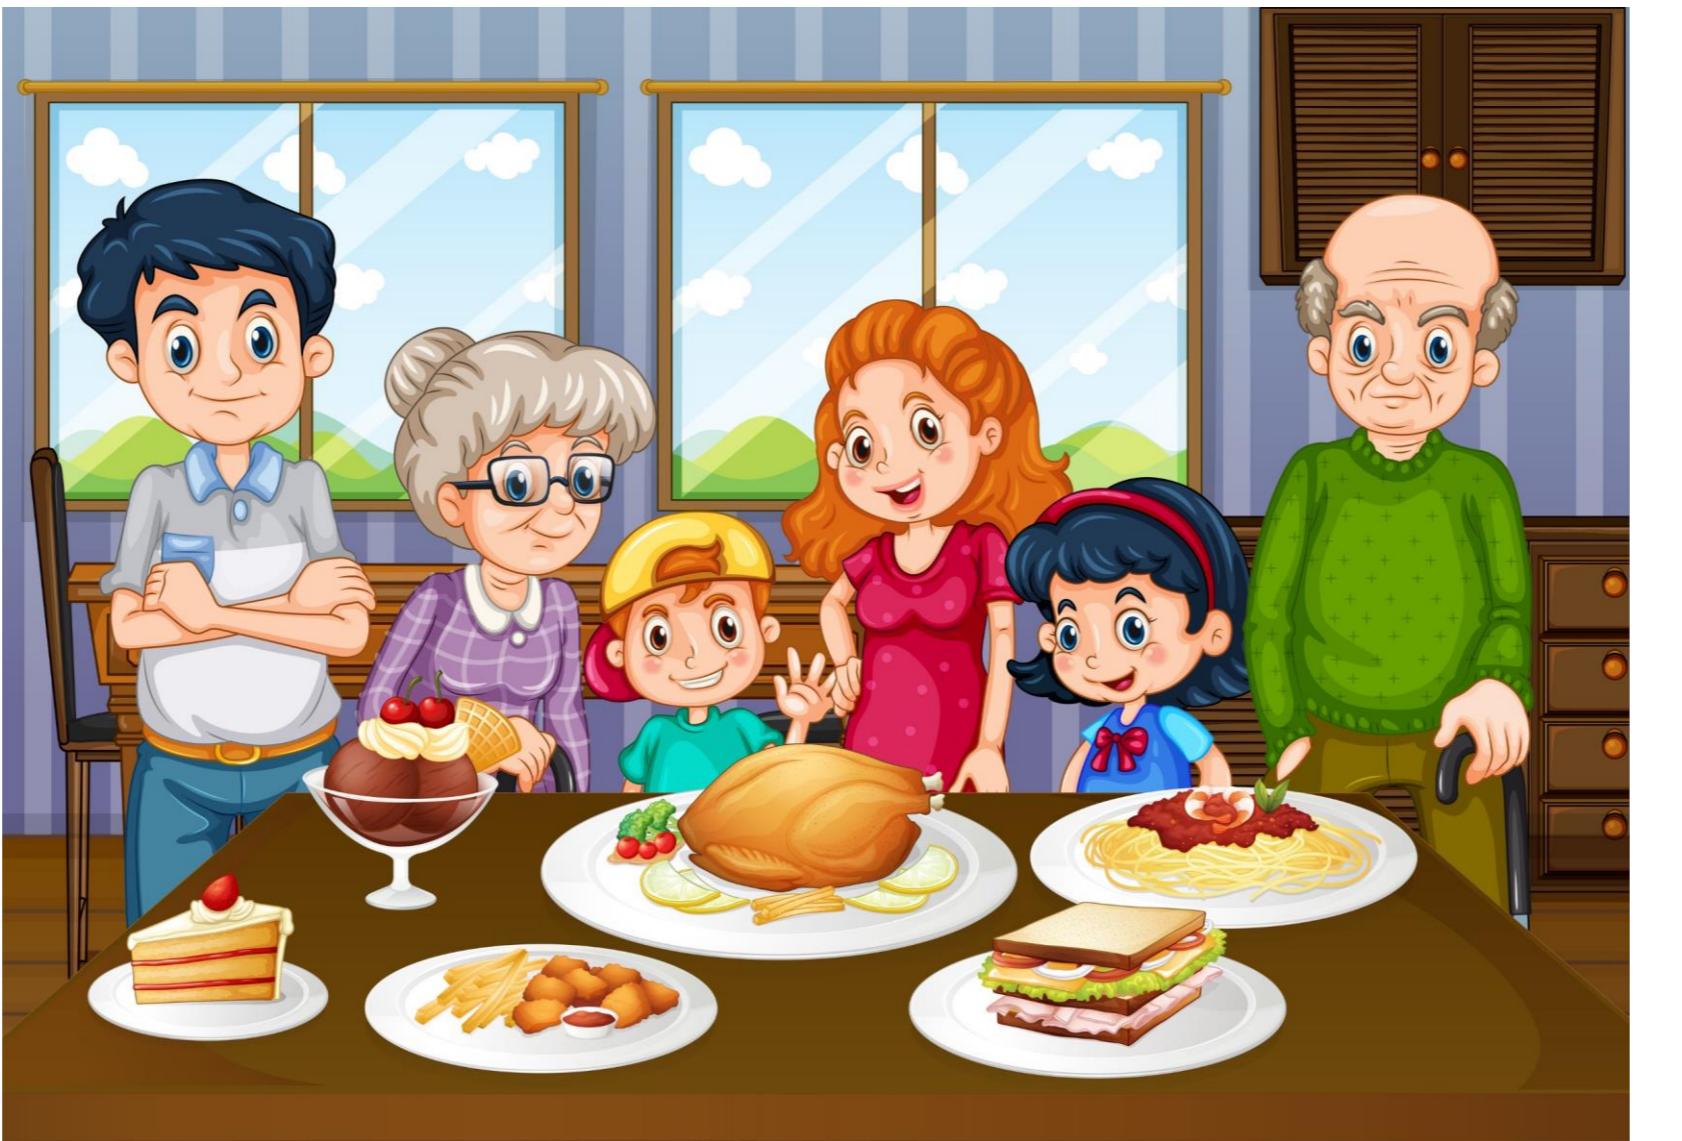

Some people talked about the weather.

And everybody talked about how beautiful
the Browns' house looked inside and out!

The Browns served dinner in the dining room at 9:00. Everybody enjoyed the meal very much.

They liked Mr. Brown's spaghetti and they loved Mrs. Brown's apple pie. In fact, everybody asked for seconds.

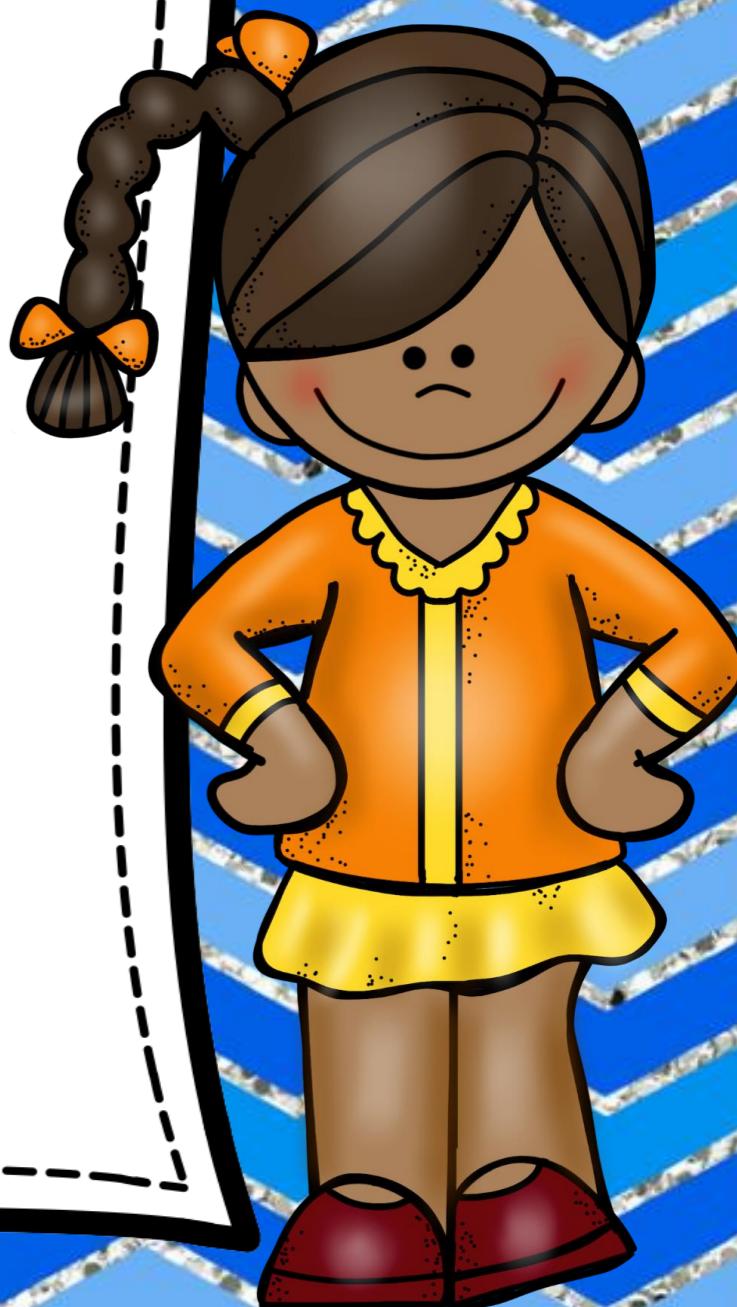

After dinner everybody sat in the living room again. First, Dan played the piano and his sister, Claudia, sang.

Then, Mr. and Mrs. Brown showed a video of their trip to Hawaii.

After that, they turned on the music and everybody danced.

As you can see, the Browns' guests enjoyed the party very much. In fact, nobody wanted to go home.
