

CLOSE FRIENDS

My wife and I are very lucky.

We have many close friends in this city, and they're all very hard-working people.

Our friend Olivia is a farmer.

We see her when she isn't busy taking care of her animals.

When we get together with her, she always tells us how difficult her life is in the farm.

Olivia is a very close friend. We like her very much.

Our friend Matthew is a baker.

We see him when he isn't busy baking cakes in his bakery.

When we get together
with him, he always tells us about his new recipes.

Matthew is a very close friend. We like him very much.

Our friends Ava and Ryan are police officers.

We see them when they aren't busy driving their car and chasing criminals.

When we get together with them, they always tell us how dangerous their jobs are.

Ava and Ryan are very close friends. We like them very much.

Unfortunately, we don't see Olivia, Matthew, Ava or Ryan very often.

In fact, we rarely see them
because they're usually so busy.

But we think about them
all the time.
