

EARTH DAY

Conversation

Mark:
Hey, did you know that tomorrow is Earth Day?

Julia:
Yes, I've been seeing a lot of posts about it on social media. What are you planning to do?

Mark:
I was thinking of participating in a local park cleanup. It's a small way to help the environment, but I think every little bit counts.

Julia:
That's a great idea. I was actually considering doing something similar. Do you know where and when the cleanup is taking place?

Julia:
Count me in, then. It'll be nice to spend some time outdoors and make a difference at the same time.

Mark:
Definitely. I'm also planning on making some changes at home. For instance, I'm going to start composting and using reusable bags instead of plastic ones.

Julia:
I've been doing that for a while now, and it's really not that hard once you get into the habit. Plus, it's satisfying to know that you're doing your part to help the planet.

Mark:
Yeah, I agree. It's easy to feel overwhelmed, but if everyone makes small changes, it can add up to a big impact.

Julia:
Absolutely. And even if we can't solve everything, at least we can say we tried our best to leave the Earth a little better than we found it.
