

PAST PASSIVE - PART 5

Story: An Exceptional Career

Angela's career at SecureVision has been exceptional.

In January, Angela was hired as an administrative assistant by SecureVision, which makes security and surveillance systems.

She was sent to a workshop in February to learn about data protection and cybersecurity.

In April, she was given a raise because of her hard work, dedication, and exceptional performance on the job.

In a span of two months, she was promoted to the position of supervisor.

In July, she was named "Employee of the Month," which is considered a great accomplishment.

In September, her invaluable contributions to the company were recognized, and she was given yet another raise.

In October, she was invited to apply for a position in the company's office in Japan.

She was given the new job in December and, shortly after that, was flown to Tokyo to begin work.

Without a doubt, Angela's career at SecureVision has been exceptional. She is amazed at all the opportunities she's had since she was hired just twelve months ago.
